HELP WANTED

Many men and women call at The Farmer and look over the Help Wanted Ads. If you need help—advertise.

SITUATIONS

If you are out of work, The Farmer Wants Ads ought to be of material assistance to you. Read them over carefully each day.

Today's Wants

Wants Ads will be received for this page up to 12 o'clock noon. Those sent in at a later hour—up to 2:30—will appear on the second or third page of this paper under the heading, "Latest Wants."

We asked the young lady across the way if she intended to take another semester at school and she said she thought it would be better to go right on with the same studies she had now and not try to branch out too much.

FAIRFIELD

(Special to the Farmer.)

Fairfield, Jan. 2.—Wakenman Hill was fined $50 and costs by Judge Bacon Wakenman in the town court yesterday afternoon on the charge of reckless driving. Hill, on the night of December 25, ran down a man by the name of O'Donnell at Greenfield Hill. Ralph Marsh, a friend of Hill's, was with him at the time and stated to the court that the accident was one that could not have been avoided as Mr. O'Donnell walked in front of the automobile. Hill was fined at $100 for an appeal which was taken. O'Donnell is confined to St. Vincent's hospital with a broken leg.

The new boys' club at Southport is now open and well attended by both boys and girls. A large number from this town go to the club each day. It is expected that a basketball league will be formed by the club in the next few days.

Mrs. Herbert Foster of Brookfield, Mass., has returned to her home in that place after spending the past few days with friends in this town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Huland of Church street, will leave their home in this place on January 12 for the south where they will spend the winter.

Henry C. Adams has returned to his home after spending several days with friends in Newark, N. J.

William J. Barry of Winsted, is spending a few days with Walter Jones of Southport.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payne of Springfield, are entertaining friends from Hartford.

WESTPORT

(Special to the Farmer.)

Westport, Jan. 3.—The summer home of Miss Mary E. Dingle at Greens Farms was entered some time during the past few months. Miss Dingle fled her home last September and returned to her home in New York. On New Year's Day it was found that the house had been entered and ransacked. It is not known just what was taken. Miss Dingle was called on the telephone and stated that she would come to her home this morning.

Miss Emma V. Rippe of Greens Farms entertained a number of her friends at a house party on Hill's Point road, Wednesday evening. A most pleasing time was enjoyed by all present. At a late hour a luncheon was served after which the guests departed for their homes. Among those present were Misses Jenny Park, Miss Bourger, Miss Virginia Park, Miss Louise Mathias, Miss Isabelle Rippe, Fritz Riedel, William and August Mathias, Fred and Frank Bourger and Henry and George Rippe.

Miss C. H. Brown of Norwalk is spending a few days with friends in town.

Judge Purdy and daughter are spending a few days as guests of friends in New York city.

Mrs. Edwin Deers entertained the members of the Event club at her home on Wright street yesterday afternoon. After a short business meeting a social hour was spent.
